To the PUBLIC, New-York, Oct. 16, 1766.

IT is now upwards of six Years that I have published a weekly News Paper, under the Title of the New-York Gazette or Weekly Post-Boy, which I have the Pleasure to think has been generally acceptable, and publicly useful: But having now Occasion to alter the Title of my Paper, I hope for the same favourable Reception of the NEW-YORK JOURNAL or GENERAL ADVERTISER, that my Paper met with under the former Title; since it will be conducted with the same Spirit, and to the same Ends,—the Suppression of Evil, and the Promotion of public and private Happiness. The Reasons of altering my Title are these, 1st, for the Sake of Distinction, as I am inform'd Mr. PARKER intends to publish a Paper under the former Title; and 2d, because, as he formerly publish'd a Paper under that Title, I would not avail myself of any Advantages from a Name originally assumed by him. The Number, for the Sake of more easily settling with my Customers, will run regularly on from my last Week's Paper. Perhaps, when Opportunity permits, I shall procure a Cut for the Head of my Paper, till which Time, it will be published in its present Form.

JOHN HOLT.

Will make one assertion more, and then conclude this discourse, viz. That the most likely way of restoring King James, is maintaining a standing army to keep him out.

For the King's safety stands upon a rock whilst it depends upon the solid foundation of the affections of the people, which is never to be shaken till 'tis as evident as the sun in the firmament, that there is a formed design to overthrow our laws and liberties; but if we keep a standing army, all depends upon the uncertain and capricious humours of the soldiery, which in all ages have produced more violent and sudden revolutions, than ever have been known in unarmed governments: For there is such a chain of dependence amongst them, that if two or three of the chief officers should be disoblged, or have intrigues with jacobite mistresses; or if the King of France could once again buy his pensioners into the court or army, or offer a better market to some that are already, we shall have another rehearsal of revolution; and the people be only idle spectators of their own ruin. And whosoever considers the composition of an army, and doubts this, let him look back to the Roman empire, where he will find out of twenty-six emperors, sixteen deposed and murdered by their own armies; nay, half the history of the world is made up of examples of this kind: but we need not go any farther than our own country, where we have but twice kept armies in time of peace, and both times they turn'd out their own masters. The first under Cromwell, expelled that parliament under which they had fought successfully for many years; afterwards under General Monk they destroy'd the government they before set up, and brought back Charles the second, and he afterwards disbanded them lest they might have turned him out again. The other instance is fresh in every one's memory; how King James's army join'd with the Prince of Orange, now our rightful and lawful King. And what could have been expected otherwise from men of dissolute and debauched principles, who call themselves soldiers of fortune? who make murder their profession, and enquire no farther into the justice of the cause, than how they shall be paid; who must be false, rapacious and cruel in their own defence. For having no other profession or subsistence to depend upon, they are forced to stir up the ambition of Princes; and engage them in perpetual quarrels, that they may share of the spoils they make. Such men, like some sort of ravenous fish, fare best in a storm; and therefore we may reasonably suppose they will be better pleased with the tyrannical government of the late King, than the mild and gracious administration of his present Majesty, who came over to England to rescue us from oppression, and he has done it, and triumphs in it in spite of his enemies.

In this discourse I have purposely omitted speaking of the lesser inconveniences attending a standing army, such as frequent quarrels, murders and robberies; the destruction of all the game in the country; the quartering upon public, and sometimes private houses; the influencing of elections of parliament by an artificial distribution of quarters; the rendering so many men useless to labour, and almost to propagation; together with a much greater destruction of them; by taking them from a laborious way of living to a loose idle life; and besides this, the insolence of the officers, and the debaucheries that are committed both by them and their soldiers in all the towns they come in, to the ruin of multitudes of women, dishonour of their families, and ill example to others; and a numerous train of mischiefs besides, almost endless to enumerate. These are trivial as well as particular grievances in respect of those I have treated about, which strike at the heart's-blood of our constitution, and therefore I thought these not considerable enough to bear a part in a discourse of this nature: Besides, they often procure their own remedy, working miracles, and making some men see that were born blind, and impregnable against all the artillery of reason; for for experience is the only mistress of fools: A wife man will know a pit will bite when he sees his teeth, which another will not make discovery of but by the loss of a finger.

What I have said here against standing armies, I would be understood of such as are the instruments of tyranny and their country's ruin, and therefore I need make no apology to our own which was raised by the consent of the parliament in this just and necessary war, and next under God and our great and glorious deliverer, have by their bravery and conduct preserved our liberties, and the protestant religion through Europe. For if in future reigns any designs should be levelled against our laws, we may be assured these men would be discarded, and others promoted in their rooms who are fit for such arbitrary purposes.

Nor do I think it reasonable that our army should be ruined by that peace, which by their courage and fidelity they have procured for their country; and I doubt not but the generosity and gratitude of the parliament will give them a donative equal to their commissions, which, when the foreigners are paid and sent home, will amount to no extraordinary sum; at most 'tis supposing the war to have six months longer continuance, which is an easy composition for the charge of keeping them. But if there are any gentlemen amongst them who think we can no otherwise express our gratitude, but by signing and sealing our own ruin, I hope we shall disappoint their expectations, and not give the world occasion to tell so foolish a story of us, as that we turn'd to graft one of the most powerful Monarchs in the world for breaking our laws, that we have maintain'd an eight years war at the expence of forty millions of money, and the blood of three hundred thousand men, to justify the glorious action we have done; that by it we preserv'd all Europe besides, and lost our own liberties; at least I hope it shall not be said we consented to it. Finis.

A lordly stag, arm'd with superiour force,
Drove from their common field a vanquish'd horse,
Who for revenge, to man his strength enslav'd,
Took up the rider, and the bit received:
But when he saw his foe with triumph slain,
In vain he strove his freedom to regain,
He felt the weight, and yielded to the rein.

Some advices from Leghorn mention, that the republic of Genoa had offered to treat with the Court of Turin, for the entire cession of their right in the island of Corsica, to his Sardinian Majesty.

A Letter from Italy, dated Oct. 30, says, I "hinted to you in my last, my intentions of making a tour to Corsica: I have since put them into execution. I had a most agreeable journey, and passed eight days at Corte with General Paoli.—This is really the most extraordinary person I ever met with; he is above all praise, his age is 82, his person graceful, and his address extremely polite. He is learned in the antient and modern Languages, has a fund of knowledge that would astonish you, and so happy a memory, that you cannot quote any passage out of any writer of reputation, which he is not able to go on with. He has suffered much in his health by the vast fatigue and anxiety which he has undergone; and he mentioned to me, that he can even feel a sensible decay in his faculties. However he is still of so superior a class, that I am persuaded you would be charmed with the knowledge of him. Corte is in the centre of the Island, amongst almost impassable mountains, and has much the air of an old Grecian town."

St. George's-Town, Grenada, Oct. 25, 1766.

This Island, whose happy Situation has hitherto screened it from those Accidents, which lately befel almost all the neighbouring ones, was on the 21st Instant exposed to very great Danger, by the most alarming Earthquake that has been felt for many Years. It began about 5 o'Clock in the Morning and continued without intermission for above 2 Minutes in a Direction from about S. E. to N. W. A Duration of which perhaps there is hardly an Example. However, very providentially, no Damage has happened in Town; but the Country has not escaped so well, as several Stone Buildings on many Estates, particularly to Windward, have been shattered, and others have lost their Roofs. On the 24th at Night, 2 smart Shocks were felt here without doing any Hurt. They write from St. Vincent and Curacao that it was also felt in both these Islands at the very Moment it happened here; but the Accounts received from Trinidad, by a Launch which arrived Yesterday, are truly dreadful. The Description they give of it is beyond Conception. They alledge the Face of the Island is totally changed, whole Mountains being levelled, and that the Earth was so strongly agitated as to make it impossible to stand on ones Feet.

B O S T O N, January 19.

We hear that on the 29th ult. in a snow storm, a small schooner belonging to Barnstable, bound from Connecticut, was drove out from the Hayenae (a harbour near the vineyard) and struck upon a reef of rocks, by which accident the vessel, cargo, and all the crew, four in number, were unfortunately lost.

P O R T S M O U T H, Jan. 21

We hear from Newbury-Port, That last Saturday, as a number of Men were removing Timber in a Ship Yard there, the end of a Handspike by some accident struck a young Man about 18, on the Head, near his Temple, which kill'd him in an instant, his name was Nelson.

BRIDGE-TOWN (Barbados) December 13.

Wednesday last arrived here a Whale Sloop, James Fitch, Master, who brought in Captain John Swainstone, and the Crew of the Ship Royal George, from Nanticoke in Maryland, belonging to, and bound for London. Captain Swainstone on his Passage having met with excessive Gales of Wind, his Ship sprung a Leak, which with other Damages occasioned her to founder the 18th ult. in Lat. 38, Long. 65. She was laden with Iron, Masts, Tobacco, &c. The Crew stove the two Boats belonging to the Ship in Pieces on the Appearance of the Whale-man, who came alongside, and assisted in saving the People, but could not save any of the Cargo.

St. CHRISTOPHERS, November 19.

On Saturday morning last, Nicholas Johnson, the murderer and pirate, was publicly racked, pursuant to his sentence, in Saint Eustatius. About nine o'clock in the morning he was conducted out of the fort to the place appointed for his execution, where he was bound fast with cords to an engine resembling a St. Andrew's Cross. The executioner, with a great deal of deliberation, then proceeded to execute the law upon the criminal, breaking his right leg with a blow of an iron bar provided for that purpose. He bore the breaking of his legs and arms without a groan; but when his thighs came to be broke he made dreadful outcries. After all his limbs were thus mangled and shattered, he received twenty-two blows on his stomach before he expired. Some time before his execution he confessed that he had formerly been guilty of two murders; and acknowledged that he and his accomplice Joseph Andrews, intended to have murdered William Harris, the day he escaped out of the boat. Johnson was about 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, and a very cheerful countenance: his behaviour after sentence, and at the place of execution, was decent and resigned, which makes us conclude, that if he had lived as well as he died, his life would not have been brought to so ignominious a period.

ROSEAU, (in Dominica) November 12.

By a state of the damages which were done by the hurricane at Martinico, in the night of the thirteenth of August, lately delivered in to the General of that island, by the commandant of each quarter, it appears, that six churches were destroyed, four lost their roofs; fifty-seven whites were killed, one hundred and fifty drowned and fifty three wounded; one hundred and forty-eight negroes killed, and four hundred and sixteen wounded; seven hundred and nine houses destroyed, and seven hundred and five lost their roofs; eighty-one sugar works, one hundred and one curing-houses, seventy-eight still-houses, ninety-five mills, three hundred and two coffee-houses, two hundred and forty-five fuel houses, and six thousand seven hundred and fifty-one negro houses blown down; sixty two thousand three hundred and twenty-three loaves, and sixty barrels of sugar lost; sixty-nine snaws, brigs, sloops or schooners drove ashore and lost, and eighteen pettiengres, and twenty-seven canoe passengers destroyed.

CHARLES-TOWN (South Carolina) Dec. 9.

Letters from Georgia inform, that the Sloop Mary, James Sheffield, Master, mentioned in our last, which sailed from the Savannah for St. Augustine, on board of whom were the Hon. William Grover, Esq; Chief Justice of East-Florida, and several other Passengers, was unfortunately cast away on the Coast of Florida, to the Southward of the Matanzas; All the People on board, except two of his Honour's Servants, who were drowned, got on Shore, where they remained till taken off by a Bahama Sloop, on board of which Mr. Grover, from the Fatigue and Hardships he had undergone, languished for a short Time and died. Those who survived, are safe arrived at St. Augustine.

Dec. 16. On Thursday arrived here in the Ship New-Hope, John Gifford, Master, from New-York, John Apthorp, of Boston, Esq; and Lady; Ralph Izard, Esq; Lieut. Wright, &c.

Accounts from the Cherokee Country inform, that on the 11th ult. a Number of those Indians encamped about 5 Miles from Fort Prince-George, were surprised by a Party of Northward Indians, who killed three Men, one Woman, three Boys and one Girl, and carried away Captive one Boy, without any Loss to themselves.

From Augusta we learn, that the Mortar of the Creeks and his Party, were defeated by the Chocaws and Chickesaws, but that the Mortar himself escaped; the last Accounts from Fort Prince George are much to the same Purpose.

Letters from Pine-Tree-Hill, of a late Date, give an Account of a most dangerous Set of Villains infesting that Place, and the adjacent Neighbourhood they lately went to the House of one John Higgins, a few Miles above the Waxsaws, but as he was on his Guard, he gave them a warm Reception, and would have taken two of them, had their Comrades not come to their Assistance; they shot the poor Man thro' the Neck, of which Wound he lies dangerously ill. There is a diligent Search making for them, so that we may soon hope to hear of their being apprehended.

December 23. By Capt. Henderson, from Pensacola, we learn, That a most terrible Hurricane was felt there on the 22d of October, which had done much Damage as well on Shore as in the Harbour: That the Gale began at E. S. E. was extremely violent from about 10 o'Clock at Night till 6 in the Morning, when the Wind shifting to the W. S. W. it abated: That only four Vessels rode it out, not without receiving some Damage; and all the rest were driven ashore, viz. The Brig Rebecca, Robert Craig, Master, from this Port; a Brig the Bay of Honduras, belonging to Jamaica, four of whose Hands and the Owner's Son were drowned; four Schooners and one Sloop, all of which were entirely lost, except one of the Schooners (a Man of War's Tender) that was likely to be got off. That the 2d Instant, his Majesty's Ship the Ferret, commanded by Capt. Murray, came in there from a Cruise, entirely dismasted: And that five very rich Spanish Gallions, from La Vera Cruz, bound for Havanna and Old Spain, were drove on Shore in the Bay of St. Bernard, W. and S. of Pensacola, some Time before the Hurricane of the 22d of October, to whose Relief a Vessel had been sent from New-Orleans, but was supposed to be lost; whereupon the Adventure Man of War, commanded by Capt. Fitzherbert, sailed from Pensacola the 11th of November, to give them all possible Assistance.

The Snow Indian Trader, Thomas McMin, Master, from Georgia for Jamaica, was cast-away on the 10th of September, on a Reef of Rocks near the Grand Caicas (one of the Bahama Islands) where the Capt. Passengers and Crew happily got on Shore, and were treated with great Humanity by some Wreckers, who afterwards carried them to Providence.

We hear that his Majesty's Frigate the Escorte, commanded by Thomas Foley, Esq; in going over the Bar of Providence, struck, and received so much Damage, that it was doubted if she could be made fit for the Sea again.

It is said, that the Orders for the proper Government of Indians in the Southern Provinces, contained in the Royal Proclamation issued in 1763, has been communicated by the Earl of Shelburne, Secretary of State for the Southern Department, to all the Governors of those Provinces, as also to the Superintendent of Indian Affairs, desiring a due Observance to be paid thereto.

Dec. 30. On Friday the 19th Instant, the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to Tuesday the 19th Day of January next.—During their sitting they passed, An Ordinance for appointing Benjamin Simons, Esq; Commissary General for this Province; which was assented to by his Excellency, the Governor on the 11th Instant:—They have voted £. 200 Sterling, at the Disposal of his Excellency, towards encouraging Mr. Hammerer's Scheme for civilizing and educating the Cherokee Indians:—They have also voted for the Brick Barracks to be repaired, the Arsenal to be rough cast, the Pillars of the Wall to be plastered, and Capitals put on them:—And they have sent Home a Petition, to be presented to his Majesty, praying for the Repeal of that Act of the British Parliament, which Restrains the Emission of Paper Currency in America, and that they may have Leave to issue to the Amount of 50,000 Sterling, less than which will not be sufficient as a Medium of Trade.

Yesterday Afternoon, a Brig put in here from Falmouth for New-York, but blown off that Coast.

Jan. 13. On Sunday last put in here also, the Rebecca, Capt. William Vernon, of and for Boston, from St. Eustatia, having been twice within two Leagues of Cape Cod, but blown off the Coast each Time.

The Brig King George, John Bleak, Master, of and for New-York, from the Bay of Honduras, having sprung a Leak at Sea, and made nine Inches Water in an Hour, put into Beaufort, Port Royal, to refit, on Sunday the 28th ult.

NEW-YORK, February 5.

An Act of Assembly, passed the 29th of December last, for the Regulation of Servants, sets forth, That whereas the Emigration of Protestants from Europe, hath conduced greatly to the Settlement of this Colony, and Doubts have arisen, tending to the Discouragement of further Importations of poor Persons, It is therefore enacted, that every written Contract, to bind any Infant or other Person to Service for a Term of Years, or other shorter Time, and bona fide executed; and every Assignment of such Contract, shall be firm and valid according to the true original Meaning.

That every such future Agreement executed in the Presence of two Witnesses, and acknowledged by the Servant before any Mayor, Recorder, Alderman or Justice of the Peace, and every Assignment of such Agreement, shall be good and valid: Provided that no Infants shall be thereby bound any longer than till they arrive at the full Age of Twenty One Years, except such as are brought from beyond Sea, and shall be bound for the Payment of their Passages.

That such Servants shall be liable to such Correction as any Apprentices are liable to in England, and may be relieved and discharged for Misusage, Refusal of Necessaries, Cruelty or ill Treatment, in the Manner that Apprentices are relievable in England.

That all Servants who run away or absent themselves from Service, longer than Twenty-four Hours together, shall be obliged to serve double the Time of Absence, which (within ten Days after the Servant's Apprehension or Return) shall be ascertained by the Certificate of a Magistrate, who shall hear both Parties and their Witnesses, in a Summary Way, and shall take no greater Fees than the following.

For every Acknowledgment of an Indenture and the Certificate thereof £. 0 2 0
For certifying the Time of Absence of a Servant, 0 3 0

Nothing in the above Act, is to affect the Indentures of Apprentices, bound to be instructed in any Art or Trade, so as to make any Alteration in the same.

Our last Papers from England contain the Address of the House of Commons to the King, in Answer to his Speech from the Throne, on the 11th of November last, (as mentioned in our Paper of the 15th of last Month, together with the Address of the House of Lords, presented the next Day). The Address of the House of Commons differs little in Substance from that of the Lords, being only a polite Return to his Majesty's Speech, approving every particular mentioned in it—assuring him that they shall with the utmost Cheerfulness, grant such Supplies as shall be necessary for the Service of the Year, having the utmost Confidence in the Assurance he has given, that they shall be punctually applied to those Purposes for which they were granted, &c.

We hear from Milford Haven, (Pembrokehire, in the West of England) that on the 16th of November last, in a violent Gale of Wind, every Vessel in the Harbour, except two, were driven on Shore; among which was a Snow, belonging to Mr. Cunningham, of Halifax, the Cargo of which they were obliged to take out, and intended to get Carpenters to launch her; five or six other Vessels were driven on shore, all of them so high, that it was imagined they would be obliged to unload; several dead Bodies were seen floating in the Haven.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in London, dated November 7, 1766.

"I have strong Reasons to believe that the present Ministry will continue; they seem much disposed in Favour of America, and its Liberties, as well as those of Pennsylvania in particular."

Extract of another Letter from London, November 14, 1766.

"Our Merchants are still contemplating new Schemes for the Service of the Colonies, which will, in due Time, I presume, be laid before the Ministry; and as they are now associated into a regular Body, which they never were before, they will, for the future, be more attentive to these Points, and push them forward with more Weight and Vigour."

On Monday last the Society for promoting Arts, &c. in this Province, held a stated Meeting, when the Committee for examining the Claims for Premiums, reported, that the following Persons are entitled as hereafter mentioned,

John Hill, for the finest Piece of Linen, an 1800	£. 5.
Ditto, for the best Piece of 1000	3.
Ditto, for the best do. of 1400	3.
John Wilson, for the best Piece of 1200	3.

Capt. Hodge, in the Sloop Margaret, from St. Eustatia, in 17 Days, brings an Account of the Brig Charlotte, Capt. Butler, being arrived there from this Place.

Gaol, New-York, 4th Feb. 1767.

SIR,

By giving the following Paragraph a Place, under the New-York Head, of your Paper of To-morrow, you'll not only oblige me, but many more of your constant Readers.

ON Sunday Morning last, (at the Request of the poor unhappy condemned Criminals) the Rev. Mr. John Rodgers, one of the Pastors of the Presbyterian Congregation, of this City, preached a most excellent Sermon to them, and the Debtors in Gaol; from the 6th Chapter of St. Paul the Apostle's Epistle to the Romans, and 23d Verse, viz.—For the Wages of Sin is Death; but the Gift of God is Eternal Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. His whole Discourse was delivered with so much emphatic Brevity and Energy, as rendered it every Way adapted to the meanest Capacity; and certainly did not fail of having its desired Effect—there were present, several Ladies and Gentlemen of Distinction in this City, who all of them seemed to testify their Approbation of this most worthy Minister of Jesus Christ's excellent Sermon, on so melancholy an Occasion.

AN Example this, well worthy of Imitation; as there are Numbers of poor unhappy Souls, confined in that dreary Place of Exile, who have been debar'd the Opportunity of the Divine Worship, for several Years past."

The Criminals under Sentence of Death, who were to have been executed on Monday last, are respited till Monday next.

If Nov'ator is unwilling to discover himself, and will let the Printer know how to convey a Line to him, he shall know the Reasons why his Piece was not inserted.

[We are obliged to defer the Meteorology till next Week.]

The following Character of this Book, is given by the Monthly Reviewers, in June 1766.

A Publication of this Kind in a free State, is never unseasonable; and this Compilment has the Merit of being more full and methodical, than any Thing of the Kind now extant. Every Statute, and indeed every Mode of legal Proceeding, whereby the Liberty of the Subject is either directly or remotely affected, is here set forth and illustrated by judicious Comments. We must not omit to observe, that the Introduction contains some excellent Reflections, collected from the best Writers, on political Liberty in general, and on the Nature of the British Constitution in particular: The Subjects of this Treatise are too various and diffuse to admit of Abridgement, and indeed the Attempt would be unnecessary; for as every Man is interested in the Contents of this Collection, no one who can read should be without it.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL,
OR GENERAL ADVERTISER,—NUMB. 1257.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1767.

NEW-YORK, February 5.

WE have Advice from Quebec, that several Men of considerable Note there, most of them in genteel and honourable Employments, have lately been imprisoned, on Suspicion of being concern'd in the barbarous and villanous Assault and Maiming of Thomas Walker, Esq; a worthy Magistrate of that Place, some Time ago, as mentioned in the Papers; and that the Chief Justice, having refused to admit the Prisoners to Bail, Petitions sign'd by 71 English and 17 French of the principal Inhabitants, some of them of the Council, had been presented to the Governor, praying that he would interpose his Authority to mitigate or dispense with the Rigour of the Law, by admitting the Prisoners to Bail, if it might be done; and offering to become Bail for them to the Extent of their Fortunes, and even with their Lives. The Governor's whole Behaviour upon the Occasion does him great Honour. He rejected the Petition, shew'd a just Resentment at the Impropriety of it, and of the Measures taken to enforce it,—and made a due Distinction between those who inadvertently were concern'd in the Proceeding, and those whose Stations would not admit of such a palliating Supposition.

He shew'd himself determin'd not to interrupt the free Course of Law and Justice within his Government,—to support the Civil Officers in the Discharge of their Duty, and impartially to act up to his own; As will appear from the following Papers, said to be genuine Copies from the Originals. (We were also promised a Copy of the Chief Justice's Reasons for refusing to admit the Prisoners to Bail, but have not yet obtain'd it.)

S I R,

WE have the Honour to present the Petition of John Frazier, Esq; Captain in the late 78th Regiment, Deputy Pay-master General at Montreal, and one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas; John Campbell, Esq; Captain in the 27th Regiment; Daniel Disney, Esq; Capt. in the 44th Regiment; St. Luke la Corne, late Captain in the French Service, and Knight of the Order of St. Louis; Simon Evans, Lieut. in the 28th Regiment; and Mr. Joseph Howard, Merchant.

At the same Time that we express our Abhorrence of the Breach of public Order, on the Outrage committed on the Person of Mr. Thomas Walker, and our Wishes for the Discovery of the Perpetrators of it; we cannot be unmoved, when we consider the Circumstances of those Gentlemen, now torn from their Families, and imprisoned on Suspicion thereof.

Until we hear the Crime proved against them, we cannot help interesting ourselves for Men, who from their Families, Stations, Services, and established Characters, (until this surprising Stroke) stood in the highest Degree of Estimation in this Province.

We not only feel for them, but for their Families; with what Affliction do his Majesty's new Subjects behold the grey Hairs of their Countrymen, so unexpectedly, perhaps irretrievably affronted!

We therefore most earnestly intreat you, Sir, to interpose your Authority, to mitigate the Rigour of the Law; a Dispensation, even from which, would be in this Case (if in any) we humbly conceive, justifiable.

We are so well convinced of these Gentlemen's Honours, that all and every one of us do hereby offer to become their Bail, to the utmost Extent of our Fortunes, nay even with our Lives, as well for their Appearance to take their Trial, as for the Safety of Mr. Walker's Person from any Hurt from them, in Consequence of their Enlargement.

From your Honour's known Clemency and Moderation, we flatter ourselves with the strongest Hopes that every possible Management in Favour of these Gentlemen, will be employed; their before untainted Characters, and the public Voice, makes us confident that none ever was better applied. All which is with the greatest Respect humbly submitted to your Honour's judicious Consideration.

Quebec, Nov. 23, 1766.

[Signed by 69 Hands.]

To Lieutenant Colonel Irving, &c.

Brigadier General Carelton orders Mr. Adam Mabane, Surgeon of the Garrison of Quebec, to cease those Discourses and Practices, calculated to disturb the Peace and Tranquility of the Province, and misrepresent the Actions and Intentions of the Lieut. Governor, on pain of being suspended from his Employment, and prosecuted according to Law. Quebec, Nov. 29, 1766.

To Lieut. Col. Irving, Major of the 15th Regiment of Foot.

The following Extract of my Letter to Captain Frazier, Captain Campbell, Captain Disney, St. Luke la Corne, Lieut. Evans, and Mr. Howard, will explain to you my Opinion of the Request in the Memorial presented by you, Lieut. Col. Jones, M. La Naudiere and Capt. Morris, supported by a Letter in French, signed by seventeen Canadians, and two English; and another in English, presented by you at the same Time, signed by you as Member of Council, and again as commanding a Regiment; afterwards by 68 English.

E X T R A C T.

I HAVE received your Memorial, chiefly setting forth, that the Chief Justice had refused to accept of Bail, and suffer you to be at large till the time of your Trial; therefore praying I would interpose my Authority, and accept of said Bail, and grant you that Liberty which he has refused. I sincerely lament, and am convinced the Chief Justice doth also lament, that the Circumstances of your Case, will not suffer him to enlarge you consistently with his Duty, and the solemn Oath he has taken, to administer equal Law and impartial Justice.

As unfortunately, the Person to whom the King has delegated his Authority in these Matters, has found himself obliged in Compliance with his Duty, to make this final Declaration. My interposing my Authority, and arbitrarily wresting you out of the Hands of the Chief Justice of King's Bench, would be irregular, illegal, and, in my Opinion, what would merit his Majesty's high Displeasure.

After explaining my Opinion of the Request, I must say a Word or two, as to the Measures taken to enforce it. That many Persons who have subscribed, did not know the evil Tendency of interfering in Numbers in the free Course of Justice, I sincerely believe, both from the good Opinion I have of them, and those non-declarations since: But that Gentlemen who have the honour to be of the King's Council, should not know, that Law and Justice were to be obtained for the Sake of Law and Justice alone, I did not expect; that any of them should particularly exert themselves to procure Numbers; should appoint them to assemble about the Time of coming from divine Service on Sunday; should take Post in the Street, and importune People returning to their Homes, with an Intent to go in Numbers to the Lieut. Governor's, and in this manner to enforce such a Request; that Mr. Mabane, then one of the Council, and a Judge of the Common Pleas, should tell me in Excuse for his Conduct, that he thought that the greater the Numbers, the more likely he was to succeed, as if by Numbers he thought to intimidate, and to make me swerve from my Duty, as far as he has done from his. This, as it directly tends to overturn Law, Justice, and good Government, appears to me very extraordinary from a Counsellor and Judge.

I must just add, for your Information, Sir, that had I wrested this Power out of the Hands of the Chief Justice, I should have been guilty of Disobedience to the Spirit and Meaning of the 20th Article of his Majesty's Instructions, which you have had sometime in your Hands.

The Readiness with which all desisted from coming up, on hearing my Opinion of such a Proceeding, is a Proof to me of the good Intentions even of those
